Dear Clearwater Community,

Welcome to Clearwater's Great Hudson River Revival for 2010! It was just over a year ago that my wife and I attended Pete Seeger's 90th Birthday Celebration at Madison Square Garden, enjoying all of the music, stories, and history. Little did I know that six months later I would be asked to be the director of Clearwater's annual festival.

It is a privilege to lead this great festival that Pete and Toshi Seeger started over 40 years ago. It's also an honor to work with Will Solomon, assistant director, Jeff Rumpf, executive director of Clearwater, and the rest of the Clearwater staff who have been tremendously helpful through this year's planning. As you may know, our festival is largely dependent on 900 volunteers and 60-plus members of the Revival Planning Committee (RPC), who work tirelessly to present all that you'll see and hear over the weekend. I have tremendous respect for the individuals in the RPC, some of whom have been here since the beginning of the festival. Their passion, hard work and dedication to the festival and Clearwater is inspiring.

I often ask members why they come back to volunteer, year after year, decade after decade, and one response that sticks with me is, "Because everything that I cared about, everything that I stood for—Pete Seeger was always the first one there." I know that this feeling resonates with many of you as well.

There's so much in store for you over the course of the weekend. We have seven stages featuring great musical artists on the Rainbow and Hudson stages; a newly renamed and expanded World Dance Stage featuring dance music styles from around the globe, the Family Stage with programming for all ages; Story Grove with master storytellers; Circle Of Song, a long-standing Clearwater tradition for audience participatory singing and a new stage called The Sloop Stage which returns to the Clearwater tradition of grassroots-based programming and engaging workshops. There's also a Juried Crafts Fair, the Green Living Expo tent, Marketplace, Activist Area and a Working Waterfront where you can sail on the sloop Clearwater or Mystic Whaler plus take trips on smaller boats including canoes and kayaks. There will be lots of surprises throughout the weekend as well.

Thank you for supporting Clearwater and the Revival. I hope you have a wonderful and memorable weekend!

Steve Lurie,
Festival Director

JOIN HUDSON RIVER SLOOP CLEARWATER!

WE'VE ACCOMPLISHED SO MUCH OVER THE PAST FOUR DECADES BUT WE COULD NEVER HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT THE SUPPORT OF OUR MEMBERS. THE RIVER ITSELF IS CLEANER, BUT MANY CHALLENGES STILL REMAIN AND WE NEED YOUR HELP.

Your membership:

- Makes it possible for thousands of school children to discover and come to love the Hudson River each year!
- Keeps our Environmental Action Department working on issues ranging from PCB cleanup and nuclear safety, to watershed protection and environmental justice, to name just a few activities your membership makes possible.
- Keeps the sloop Clearwater sailing up and down the Hudson River and out into Long Island Sound, delivering the message that environmental education, social activism, and environmental justice are still needed today, perhaps more than ever before!

Making a Difference:

By leading the way at many key junctures of the environmental movement, Clearwater continually advocates for the health and welfare of the river, its watershed, and the people who call it home, through its mission to protect and restore the Hudson River. Some of the river's most pressing environmental needs are just now gaining ground. Clearwater's members continue to influence decisions affecting the health of the environment in our communities and to inspire, educate, and activate the next generation of environmental leaders.

Not a Member? Get Involved Now!

The Member Action Tent is the best place to join. While you're there take a look at the many different ways your gift can help.

Already a Clearwater Member?

Stop by the Member Action Tent to renew your membership or to make an additional gift to increase your impact.

Clearwater Membership Benefits:

- A subscription to the Clearwater Navigator—our biannual newsletter containing the top stories, bulletins, and calendar information about the Hudson River, Clearwater, and related waterway activities
- An opportunity to be a volunteer educator aboard the sloop Clearwater or our sister ship, the schooner Mystic Whaler
- 10% discount on Clearwater merchandise
- Discount admission and an opportunity to volunteer at Clearwater's annual music and environmental festival, the Great Hudson River Revival
- Discount admission to community outreach sails throughout the year
- A vote in the election of Clearwater's Board of Directors

CLEARWATER'S VOLUNTEER TRADITION

Year after year, Clearwater's growing family of volunteers bring hard work, new ideas, positive energy and boundless enthusiasm to the Clearwater legacy. In the 1960s, volunteers "passed the hat" and raised money to build the sloop Clearwater at Hudson Valley Folk Picnics. Four decades later, the folk picnic has evolved into a tradition of active, ongoing volunteer participation.

CREATING THE NEXT GENERATION OF ENVIRONMENTAL LEADERS

This year, Clearwater has installed water quality monitoring equipment on the sloop that will make us part of the Hudson River Environmental Conditions Observing System (HRECOS), a river-wide network of sensors that record data on the river in real time. Students who sail with us will be able to track Clearwater after they leave the boat and monitor the river as Clearwater sends back data that will be useful for scientists and educators. HRECOS is a partnership between the Stevens Institute, the Hudson River Foundation, the Cary Institute, the NYS DEC Hudson River Estuary Program, the USGS, Lamont Doherty Earth Observatory, the National Estuarine Research Reserve System, and NOAA. Go to www.hrecos.org to find real-time data as well as lesson plans and HRECOS stories that bring the data to life. Find out more at the Tideline Tent!

The sloop Clearwater in all her glory is one part of Clearwater's legacy.

Thousands of volunteers helped raise the money to build the boat and thousands more contribute time, energy, resources, and skills to keep her on the water every year. Each returning volunteer and every new member of our community is welcome to lend a hand!

One of the images you will see this weekend is over 900 volunteers working side-by-side on our annual music and environmental festival. In addition to volunteering at our festival, Clearwater presents the following opportunities to become involved throughout the year:

- Office Volunteers
- Construction and Renovations
- Tabling and Outreach
- Grassroots Marketing Team
- Cause Musicians
- Garden Volunteers
- Fundraising and Hosting a House Party
- Onboard Volunteers for the sloop Clearwater and the schooner *Mystic Whaler

Clearwater's mission is to preserve and protect the Hudson River and its communities, and to inspire, educate, and activate the next generation of environmental leaders. We are a grassroots organization built by individuals donating their time, energy, and skills. Volunteers are the life-blood of this effort.

To those who continue volunteering with Clearwater over the years, thank you for your hard work and dedication. Your time means so much to us.

If you have not yet joined our volunteer team, please come join us and volunteer this year with Clearwater!

Visit www.clearwater.org.

E-mail volcoord@clearwater.org.

Clearwater has always believed that in order for people to want to protect the Hudson, they have to experience it directly. Experiential learning is at the heart of what we do. The Classroom of the Waves boat programs on the sloop Clearwater and schooner Mystic Whaler combine the thrill of sailing a tall ship with first-hand study of the river's ecology. The Tideline Program brings kids to the Hudson's shore, while our classroom programs bring the river to the school. Our Youth Empowerment Programs (which include Young Men and Young Women at the Helm) provide kids with powerful multi-day experiences on the sloop, where they develop self-confidence while learning about environmental science and developing maritime skills. Camp Clearwater offers two-week intensives on kayaking, canoeing, hiking, and rock climbing. Our Power of Song program gets kids to express themselves through music and connects them to past generations of cause musicians who have made a difference in the world.

All of this is designed to engage kids using the Hudson as a learning tool. We don't just talk about the river, we make students part of the experience. While there is great pressure on schools to reduce costs and cut back on Clearwater programs like field trips on the boat or to the river's shore, these experiences dramatically enhance kids' desire to learn. Clearwater gives kids multiple opportunities to get involved, as students, volunteers, apprentices and interns. In this way, we help set the stage for them to become the next wave of environmental leaders.

At the festival, we have two Clearwater tents devoted to education. One is called the Discovery Tent. There you will find Hudson River fish tanks, macroinvertebrates, and interactive displays. Near the Working Waterfront, is our Tideline Tent, where you can get information about current Hudson River research activities, including HRECOS (see sidebar), and learn about our shore based programs like Camp Clearwater and the Tideline Program. You can go seining for fish or even take a turn paddling our giant fur trader canoe. See you there!

ENVIRONMENTAL ACTION

Clearwater's Environmental Action Team Celebrates A Year of Victories and Faces New Challenges

New York State Requires Indian Point to Switch to Closed-Cycle Cooling—Fish Decline Triggers Water Permit Denial

Indian Point Nuclear Power Plant uses 2.5 billion gallons a day of Hudson River water for its once-through cooling system, which kills billions of fish, larvae and other organisms a year—an important cause of the steady decline of 10 of the 13 signature Hudson River fish. Clearwater applauds NY State Department of Environmental Conservation's decision to enforce the Clean Water Act by withholding Indian Point's Water Quality Certification (WQC) until Entergy, the facility owner and operator, installs a large closed-cycle cooling system which will reduce the plant's water usage by about 90%. The WQC is a requirement for the proposed 20-year relicensing of this aging nuclear power complex. For more information see: www.dec.ny.gov/permits/63150.html.

Clearwater also supports the request by Congressmen John Hall (NY), John Adler (NJ), and Edward Markey (MA) that the Government Accountability Office (GAO) conducts an investigation into the integrity and safety of buried piping at our nation's nuclear power plants. More than 25% of all operating electric power reactors in the US have had radioactive leaks. In some cases, buried pipes carry water which would cool the reactor core in the event of an unexpected plant shut-down. Indian Point has leaked massive amounts of radioactive isotopes into the groundwater under the plant, which then finds its way into the Hudson River. Recently, Oyster Creek in NJ leaked tritiated water into an aquifer that supplies drinking water to local residents. Public health and safety requires better oversight. Please stop by Clearwater's Environmental Action Tent to sign the Petition in Support of Closed-Cycle Cooling at Indian Point and Urging a GAO Investigation of buried piping at all nuclear generation plants.

First year of PCB Clean Up Presents Many Challenges:

On May 15, 2009—the year of Pete Seeger's 90th Birthday, Clearwater's 40th and the 400th Anniversary of Henry Hudson's arrival in the New World—the long-awaited clean-up of over 1.3 million pounds of polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs) discharged by General Electric (GE) into the Hudson River began. Using sealed clam-shell dredges, GE's contractors worked 24-hours a day, 6 days a week from May through November to remediate the first phase of contaminated sediments from the upper Hudson River. Some of the challenges encountered during this phase were: a greater than average water volume, water flow disturbances, and the force of the river. In addition, large amounts of debris masked the true depth of contamination (DoC). During 2009 GE's contractors removed almost twice as much PCB-containing sediment and debris from 10 of the proposed 18 sites ("certification units" or CUs) as was expected. Nonetheless, PCB removal from the 8 remaining Phase 1 sites had to be postponed to Phase 2, which includes another 35 miles of dredging.

This winter and spring GE and EPA submitted various reports on Phase 1 dredging to an independent Peer Review Panel. EPA is urging that the Engineering Performance Standards for sediment resuspension, residuals and productivity be maintained, while GE wants Phase 2 to be "streamlined," which would allow more PCBs to be left in the Hudson River, capped rather than removed. Clearwater strongly supports EPA recommendations for Phase 2. We emphasize that resuspension can be minimized by obtaining a better understanding of DoC; by undertaking a more careful dredging; by extending the wharf and related equipment to assure more efficient scow unloading; by an earlier and more widespread use of control measures, i.e., sheet piling, silt curtains, absorbent booms, less decanting, better access, and improved near-field monitoring of PCBs. Clearwater also recommends using more effective control measures to prevent the volatilization of PCBs into the air, and acknowledges that, due to the higher-than-expected extent of PCB contamination, it is possible that another year will be needed to complete the remediation project and to assure a world-class clean up, extending Phase 2 from 5 to 6 years resuming in 2011.

Advancing Environmental Justice in the Hudson Valley

In addition to our expanded mission of inspiring the next generation of environmental leaders, Clearwater is deeply committed to promoting environmental justice (EJ) in the Hudson Valley region by minimizing environmental harm to communities of color and low income and by assuring that environmental benefits are distributed fairly. Through a grant from the NYS Department of Environmental Conservation's Office of Environmental Justice, Clearwater has partnered with the Citizens for Equal Environmental Protection (CEEP) to perform a comprehensive environmental justice inventory (CEJI) in Peekskill, along with a revised Angler Survey and a Youth Empowerment project coordinated by the well-known hip-hop artist Decora Lloyd Sandiford of the ReadNex Poetry Squad—a favorite in the Hudson Valley and beyond.

Clearwater is proud to announce that it was recently awarded an EPA Environmental Justice Small Grant to promote Climate Justice in four Hudson River cities to help reduce their carbon emissions and assure that communities of color and/or economically disadvantaged are not disproportionately impacted by climate change and are adequately prepared to manage its potential consequences.

Watershed Protection and Green Infrastructure Planning in Hudson River Cities

Clearwater has partnered with the Hudson Valley Regional Council and the Hudson River Watershed Alliance to implement a Green Infrastructure (GI) planning project in the Hudson Valley region. At least 10 community-based plans for implementing GI techniques will be developed in each of the participating communities. Victor-Pierre Melendez, who has been coordinating watershed planning in the lower, non-tidal Rondout Creek Watershed, will extend his work to Kingston in the tidal Rondout for this project. Our new Environmental Justice Associate, Karla Raimundi, will work in Beacon and the Fishkill Watershed, and Jen Rubbo will continue community outreach, organizing and educational efforts in Poughkeepsie and Hyde Park in the Fallkill Watershed. Other participating communities include Yonkers, Pawling, Newburgh, Warwick and Greenwood Lake. This project, which is designed to support green jobs and local economic revitalization, will expedite development of projects that can be finalized and implemented as future resources become available. It is being funded by the American Recovery Reinvestment Act

(ARRA) through the NY State Department of Environmental Conservation.

Green infrastructure is a set of approaches and technologies that infiltrate, evaporate, capture or reuse stormwater to maintain or restore natural watershed benefits in our communities. Most green infrastructure techniques use soils and vegetation to infiltrate, evaporate, and/or recycle stormwater runoff. Green roofs, vegetated swales, rain gardens, cisterns and rain barrels, permeable pavement, and street trees with enhanced tree boxes are some common examples. Green infrastructure projects often involve retrofitting existing "grey" infrastructure—roads, parking lots, buildings, and stormwater systems—to improve the capacity to hold and absorb stormwater. Other GI practices improve a landscape's capacity to absorb stormwater by restoring natural features like forests, fields, floodplains, or wetlands. In addition to effectively managing rainfall and runoff, green infrastructure can help improve air quality, reduce energy demands, mitigate urban heat island impacts, and sequester carbon while also providing communities with aesthetic and natural resource benefits. (For more information please visit www.epa.gov/greeningepa/stormwater/best\_practices.htm)

RECYCLING & COMPOSTING

Revival is a festival that serves many thousands of people, including audience, volunteers, staff and artists. From the very beginning over forty years ago, our festival has taken responsibility for the waste that we generate. We continue this tradition and raise awareness of the waste stream by providing sorting stations located around the site. These stations include three bins:

Compost / Recycling / Trash

HOW DO YOU KNOW WHAT GOES IN EACH BIN?

Compost – All utensils provided by our food vendors are made of plant polymers that are biodegradable and compostable. This means they can be thrown in the compost bins at each sorting station. What else can be thrown in these bins? All paper plates and paper scraps (napkins), all of your food waste (including meat and dairy), chopsticks, and even your straws! This material is collected, processed, mixed with other carbon source material (ie leaves, wood chips) and in 1-2 years breaks down into a rich soil amendment.

Recycling – Most other waste at the festival is recyclable or redeemable. This includes bottles, cans and other plastics. The deposits from these containers are redeemed by Clearwater and help offset our operating costs for the festival and other Clearwater programs.

Trash – Are you certain it needs to be thrown away? Please double check where the product came from on the festival grounds. If it's from the food court or any food vendor it is compostable or recyclable. The trash bin is the last resort.

ZERO WASTE

Over the past three years, our festival has been moving toward zero waste. This means that every year we have increased the percentage of the waste stream that is recovered through composting and recycling, thus reducing the amount of trash that ends up at the county incinerator. We rely on everyone at the festival to chip in by taking an extra moment every time you throw something away. Together we can make this work.

QUESTIONS?

Our festival Recycling/Litter picking committee has trained volunteers to help you decide where your waste can be deposited. Please ask them to help you sort compostables and recyclables. They are present in the food court at each sorting station and at various locations around the festival grounds.

CHILDREN'S AREA

SOME OF THE ACTIVITIES YOU'LL DISCOVER:

The Festival Children's Area is a distinctively creative and inspired activity area for kids and parents alike. Explore a unique non-competitive play area that teaches, engages and challenges. The Children's Area provides a wonderful outlet for young creative energy to be released.

FACE PAINTING

Turn your face into a decorative and fun piece of art.

RECYCLED PLANT POTS

POLITICAL ACTIVISM

This year's Activist Area would like to pay tribute to Doris "Granny D" Haddock, who passed away in March, at the age of 100. She is an example of what true grassroots activism is all about.

She began her activist activity in 1960 when she and her husband successfully campaigned against planned hydrogen bomb nuclear testing in Alaska. Their actions helped save an Inuit fishing village at Point Hope. In April of 2000, Granny D was arrested for reading the Declaration of Independence in the Capitol Building. At her hearing, she said to the judge, "Some of us do not have much power, except to put our bodies in the way of an injustice, to walk, to picket or to just stand in the way. It will not change the world overnight but it is all we can do." In 1999, when she was 90, she gained national recognition when she walked 3,200 miles across our country to call attention to the issue of campaign finance reform. She is widely credited with galvanizing the public support that helped pass the McCain-Feingold Campaign Finance Reform Bill in 2004.

Granny D has been an ongoing symbol of strength, integrity and perseverance. She embodied the same spiritual consciousness that has been at the root of Pete Seeger's ongoing journey in addressing the social, environmental and political injustices that negatively impact all our lives. We greatly appreciate the commitment and dedication that Granny D exhibited and are thankful for the role model that she was for us. Martin Luther King Jr. once said, "He who accepts evil without protesting against it is really cooperating with it." Those in our activist community, just like Granny D, work tirelessly at protesting many evils. They are truly a part of the solution. The political activists at this festival are among the numberless grassroots organizers that advocate for a better world. They speak out in response when others speak from ignorance, fear, and selfishness. Clearwater is proud to host these courageous members of our society.

SLOOP CLUBS

Sloop Clubs support knowledge and love of the river through concerts, festivals, lectures, publications, potluck dinners, picnics, and sailing programs.

As affiliates of Hudson River Sloop Clearwater, Inc. they are dedicated to carrying out the organization's purposes in their own locations through education, advocacy and celebration. Each club has its own character and emphasis—raising public awareness of the river as a natural and recreational resource; promoting sound ecological practices; educating about watershed ecology, responsible and irresponsible uses of natural resources, and methods of remediation for existing problems.

Contact a Sloop Club near you for more information about specific activities and meetings.

BEACON SLOOP CLUB

(Mid-Hudson Valley)

Clubhouse located at 2 Red Flynn Drive on the Hudson River adjacent to the Beacon train station. Meetings first Friday of each month. SLOOP CLEARWATER THE RIVER SHE SAILS, FROM NEW YORK SHE HAILS

On a cold January night in 1966, Pete Seeger typed out a wild idea to his friend Vic Schwartz, an idea that would provide a symbol for the emerging Hudson River environmental movement: "Why don't we get a few hundred families together and build a life-size Hudson River sloop?" The Hudson at that time had become little more than a waste canal. Industries and communities had been dumping anything and everything into the river since the days when sloops, those glorious vessels with enormous sails, were common on the river, carrying passengers and cargo between New York City and Albany.

On May 17th, 1969, Clearwater slid down the ways of Harvey Gamage's Shipyard in South Bristol, Maine. It had been over a century since a vessel of its kind had been launched. In the 41 years since that day, over 10,000 schoolchildren per year have been introduced to the beauty that runs through their lives by participating in Clearwater's experiential sloop-based education programs; and people of all ages have been brought down to a river that had been inaccessible to them, reconnecting them to the waterway that they now care for as their own.

After 41 years of sailing and over 500,000 people who have moved across Clearwater's decks, time, wear and tear have taken their toll. To date, her deck has been completely replaced, along with the standing rigging, sails, and the auxiliary generator, and we have progressed to massive renovations of the hull framing and planking.

As part of an ambitious and proactive 5-year restoration plan, the 2009-2010 winter maintenance season saw Clearwater's bow completely exposed to the stem for the first time since her launch. Clearwater's dedicated winter crew, led by Captain Nicholas Rogers, worked alongside master shipwright Jim Kricker and the skilled team from Rondout Woodworking to replace frames and planks in the vessel's bow, rebuilding a most crucial part of our hull to ensure the structural integrity of this hard-working sloop. The large timbers at her stern and surrounding her centerboard will follow in the upcoming years, in addition to much of the planking below the waterline—resulting in a strong new hull, ready to take on the next forty years and the next generation of environmental leaders.

Far from being an historical remnant, Clearwater remains a dynamic and vital part of the river and its people. Almost every day during our sailing season, we welcome new students aboard and turn the Hudson River into their classroom, using the tides and currents, the fish and plankton, and the deck of our ship to get them excited about ecology, stewardship, chemistry, physics, and even math.

These students, many of whom have never been on a boat before, help us cast our net and retrieve it, work together to raise our 3,000 lb. mainsail, test the water for characteristics like salinity and pH, and, of course, get to grasp the tiller and steer the boat.

As these students grow, they are provided with many more opportunities to deepen their relationship with the river and its rich maritime history: From participating in our multi-day Youth Empowerment program, to volunteering onboard for a week, to becoming a member of the crew for 1 to 3 months as a sailing apprentice, Clearwater provides a tangible way for the youth of the Hudson River to participate in the legacy of their own history.

FESTIVAL PERFORMERS

Amy B.

Amy B.

Amy has performed her songs for kids of all ages at the Bronx Zoo. A proud and grateful native of the Hudson Valley, Amy works at the Wildlife Conservation Society.

Angel Band

Angel Band

Angel Band blends gospel, soul, bluegrass, Cajun, folk and pop into a high energy American music gumbo. Featuring three part harmonies of bandleader/ chief songwriter Nancy Josephson and singers Aly Paige & Kathleen Weber, the band includes Marc Moss (mandolin/drums/guitar), Bob Taylor (bass), Christie Lenee (guitar), and Nate Grower (fiddle).

Ann Shapiro and Tom Callinan

Ann Shapiro and Tom Callinan

Connecticut-based husband and wife duo Tom Callinan and Ann Shapiro have worked together since 1982. Tandem storytelling, interspersed with participatory folk music, and an array of string, wind, and percussion instruments bring audiences of all ages into their performances.

Arm-of-the-Sea Theater

Arm-of-the-Sea Theater

Arm-of-the-Sea combines live music with mask & puppet theatre. Based on the ship's log and the oral traditions of Lenape and Mohican peoples, "Mutual Strangers" tells the story of Henry Hudson's world-changing voyage up the Hudson River from many points of view.

Betty Boomer

Betty Boomer

Long ago Betty fell off Clearwater and into love with the natural world. "The Bug Lady" is the namesake of the Hudson Valley quartet Betty and the Baby Boomers. Her goal is to spot a sturgeon while windsurfing on the Hudson.

Bob Reiser

Bob Reiser

Author and storyteller, Bob Reiser's books include Everybody Says Freedom, written with Pete Seeger. In 2009, Bob told at the Jonesborough Festival's Exchange Place, and in 2010 he will be Teller in Residence at the International Storytelling Center in Tennessee.

Bobaloo Basey

Bobaloo Basey

Bobaloo is a native New Yorker who has performed all over Europe as a "busker," though now he takes his one-man show into classrooms across the city and inspires audiences with traditional and original folk tales and song.

Bonga & the Vodou Drums

Bonga & the Vodou Drums

Bonga & the Vodou Drums of Haiti present mesmerizing Afro-Haitian rhythms, dances and songs, led by Bonga, one of Haiti's drumming masters. With traditional percussion and unique instrumentation, this family-based ensemble uplifts the spirit with powerful roots music of Haiti.

Brother Josephus and the Love Revival Revolution Orchestra

Brother Josephus and the Love Revival Revolution Orchestra

Brother Josephus and the Love Revival Revolution Orchestra is a 12-piece ensemble that blends New Orleans party music, Soul in the style of Al Green, jam-band Roots Rock, with a splash of upbeat Gospel (what the band refers to as "secular gospel").

Buckwheat Zydeco

Buckwheat Zydeco

Contemporary zydeco's most popular performer, Buckwheat Zydeco's urbanized sound marries traditional and contemporary zydeco with uncommon flair. "Buckwheat leads one of the best party bands in America; he can pump out zydeco two-beats or shift into rolling 12-bar blues, steaming all the way." (The New York Times)

Captain Killian & Crew

Captain Killian & Crew

Captain Bob Killian appeared on the first Hudson River Sloop Singer album released in 1969. Fifi Killian performed with Doctor Zoom and the Sonic Boom with Bruce Springsteen. Zak Longo attended the Berklee School of Music.

FESTIVAL PERFORMERS

Keller Williams

Keller Williams

Singer, songwriter, and guitarist Keller Williams is literally a one-man jam band. For this special set he performs "Loopless Acoustic." Endlessly creative, innovative, and fun, Keller has a wacky take on the world, coupled with amazing and eccentric guitar talents.

Ken Corsbie

Ken Corsbie

Caribbean Voices says Ken is a full-blooded West Indian stereotype—half Chinese, Scottish, African, Amerindian. He brings the sounds and sights of the Caribbean—the stories, legends, poems, songs of the islands and his native home, Guyana.

Kim & Reggie Harris

Kim & Reggie Harris

Consummate songwriters, storytellers and cultural ambassadors, Kim and Reggie Harris are longtime friends and collaborators in the Clearwater family. They sing the songs of peace, freedom, and justice with passion and joy. Always inspiring! They'll make you wanna sing!

Le Vent du Nord

Le Vent du Nord

Le Vent du Nord has exploded onto the folk music scene with a traditional and original repertoire that has crowds dancing to the sound of fiddle and hurdy-gurdy. Singing in their native French, their music is both fresh and bound to tradition.

Linda Richards

Linda Richards

Folksinger/teacher by weekday, rock and roll singer on weekends—Linda leads Clearwater's "Power of Song" program. The inspiration of a song, the possibilities in learning, and the magic of humor drive Linda and her performances!

Lucy Kaplansky

Lucy Kaplansky

Barely out of high school, Lucy Kaplansky left for New York City where she found a fertile community of songwriters and performers—Suzanne Vega, John Gorka, Bill Morrissey, Cliff Eberhardt, and others—where she fit right in. With a beautiful flair for harmony, Lucy was everyone's favorite singing partner.

Matt Turk

Matt Turk

A veteran and touring performer, Matt's new recording American Preservation presents traditional standards and well-loved classics. Matt also serves as resident musician at Congregation B'nai Jeshurun in New York City and Westhab's Coachmen Family Center.

Mel & Vinnie

Mel & Vinnie

Kind of old timey, kind of blue, kind of topical and mostly true, Mel and Vinnie sing songs of social angst and personal dilemmas that make you dance and sing along.

Melissa K. Knowles

Melissa K. Knowles

Melissa K. Knowles is an energetic juggler, hula hooper, acro-balancer, stiltler, musician, social artist, and creative educator. She is a founding member of FutureNow! Productions and the Bellingham Circus Guild.

Mike Doughty

Mike Doughty

Before emerging as a solo artist, Mike Doughty was best known as the frontman of the avant-garde group Soul Coughing. He admits that his upcoming album, Sad Man Happy Man, is a reaction to his fans' reaction and that he's giving the people what they want.

Milton

Milton

Milton, a modern-day troubadour with a distinctive voice, is the leader of a rootsy collective with a grassroots following known for the warmth and spontaneity of his live shows. With a playlist that includes traditional folk, blues, and country songs with old time harmonies.

Nancy Marie Payne

Nancy Marie Payne

With 36 years of experience as a teacher and 17 years as a professional storyteller, Nancy Marie Payne tells stories from the 18th and 19th century and other traditional tales. Her specialties are historical pieces and women's tales.

Nancy Tucker

Nancy Tucker

Nancy Tucker's songs are filled with fun, frolic, and life affirming messages. No matter what the venue, she captures each audience's imagination and heart with gentle invitation and contagious lunacy.

Nettie Lane

Nettie Lane

Nettie has performed as storyteller, aerialist, bearded lady, and clown. After studying with Italian Clown Master, Giovanni Fusetti, her clown Annabelle was born. You may see her running around in a pink shower cap leaving a wave of ruckus behind.

Paul Richmond

Paul Richmond
"We are all jugglers one way or another." Paul's entertaining show requires audience participation. He uses storytelling and comedy both onstage and roving the festival. His "day job" brings the arts into schools. An audience favorite is his "dancing sticks."

Pete Seeger

Pete Seeger
Folk legend, master storyteller, and Clearwater co-founder. Join Pete with Power of Song apprentices at the Rainbow Stage (Saturday) and with Tomorrow's Children at the Family Stage (Sunday).

Raging Grannies

Raging Grannies
The Metro New York Raging Grannies and Their Daughters are women singing satirical parodies to promote peace, justice, and the environment. "Gaggles" exist worldwide. The New York City Metro Raging Grannies and Their Daughters have been singing at gatherings all over the NY metropolitan area since 2001.

Railroad Earth

Railroad Earth
Railroad Earth emerged from the breakup of one of New Jersey's most popular bands, From Good Homes, in early 2001. Since then the band has transcended the realm of traditional bluegrass to incorporate folk, Celtic, jazz, and rock music.

Rhett Miller

Rhett Miller
Rhett Miller is the front man and main songwriter of the Old 97's, as well as an accomplished solo artist. In addition to his seven records with the 97's, he's released two highly regarded solo albums, The Instigator and The Believer.

Rick Nestler

Rick Nestler
"Whiskey tenor" Rick, a longtime Clearwater Sloop Singer, actor, on-board educator, chantey singer, skiffle player, licensed captain, songwriter, and Circle of Song coordinator, is master of many trades. Rick's best known Hudson River song is "The River that Flows Both Ways."

Robert DeMayo

Robert DeMayo
Philadelphia resident Robert DeMayo has a varied career of acting, directing, and teaching. He conducts workshops and trainings for American Sign Language interpreters and consults and acts for independent film productions, including the movies Universal Signs and the current release See What I'm Saying: The Deaf Entertainers Documentary.

Roger the Jester

Roger the Jester
As magician, physical clown, and musician, Roger the Jester is willing to be your fool and lets us all have a well needed laugh in today's society. Roger recently performed at displacement tent camps in Haiti for victims of the 2010 earthquake.

Rude Mechanical Orchestra

Rude Mechanical Orchestra
Brooklyn-based Rude Mechanical Orchestra (RMO) is a 30-odd-piece radical marching band and dance troupe that plays protests, benefits, and events for good causes. A consensus-based democratic collective, RMO is on their way to the United States Social Forum in Detroit.

Samite

Samite
Born and raised in Uganda, Samite celebrates that which makes us human: love, loss, endurance, and hope. Samite's music conveys optimism through stories and song, replete with swirling melodies, infectious rhythms, and soulful vocals.

Sara Watkins

Sara Watkins
27-year-old Sara Watkins is a singer-songwriter and fiddle player who spent all of her teenage and young adult life as one-third of Nickel Creek, the Grammy-winning acoustic trio. Her self-titled solo disc was produced by former Led Zeppelin bassist John Paul Jones.

Sarah Lee Guthrie and Johnny Irion

Sarah Lee Guthrie and Johnny Irion
The musical richness and psychological depth of Sarah Lee Guthrie and Johnny Irion's collaborations are evident in the writing and recordings of the granddaughter of Woody/daughter of Arlo and the prodigious South Carolinian, who together quite naturally bring out the best in each other.

FESTIVAL PERFORMERS

Shawn Colvin

Shawn Colvin

Shawn Colvin is a leading light of the "new folk movement" from the late 1980s to the 1990s. Colvin's debut record won a Grammy for "Best Contemporary Folk Album" in 1991, but it was her 1997 single, "Sunny Came Home," that firmly catapulted her into the mainstream.

Slavic Soul Party

Slavic Soul Party

Brash and strong as slivovitz, these nine musicians have forged a virtuosic new brass band music in the heart of New York City—melding Gypsy, East European, Mexican, and Asian immigrant backgrounds with American jazz and soul—and "developed a reputation for delivering a great time." (New York Times)

Steve Earle

Steve Earle

Longtime protégé of Townes Van Zandt, Steve Earle is a master songwriter in his own right with songs recorded by Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Emmylou Harris, Waylon Jennings, Travis Tritt, The Pretenders, Joan Baez and countless others.

Steve Forbet

Steve Forbet

Like Bruce Springsteen and John Prine before him, "the next Dylan," Steve Forbet never put too much stock in the comparison and has forged his own path. The honesty and dignity of Forbet's songs continue to have a magical effect on his loyal coterie of fans.

Storycrafters

Storycrafters

Jeri Burns and Barry Marshall are The Storycrafters. Their natural, energetic style has been featured in festivals, schools, and libraries internationally. Multi-award winning performers and recording artists, they specialize in original re-tellings and modern renditions of world folklore.

Stout

Stout

Stout is represented this year by Bob Conroy (banjo, guitar, vocals), Frank Hendricks (guitar, vocals), and Bill Grau (vocals). They play a mix of traditional American songs and sea shanties with a skill acquired through many years of performing.

Tao Seeger

Tao Seeger

Music is in his blood. Fusing the folk styles of his family heritage with contemporary rock-n-roll, Tao Seeger's music breaks all barriers of traditional folk bringing a unique and distinctive sound to the table.

Terry Sullivan

Terry Sullivan

Terry Sullivan sings traditional music, usually a cappella in Zulu, Irish, Yiddish, and Spanish. He's sung with Tommy Makem, Ladysmith Black Mambazo, and many times with Pete Seeger.

The Dirty Stay Out Skiffers

The Dirty Stay Out Skifflers

The Skifflers (Dan Berger on harmonica, Rick Nestler on guitar and vocals, and Donna Nestler on banjo and vocals) will have you tapping your toes, singing along and smiling with their country, old-timey and folk tunes.

The Edukated Fleas

The Edukated Fleas

"We're 78 rpm in an MP3 world!" With a repertoire that includes swing tunes, standards and cowboy tunes from the 1920s through 1950s, the Fleas—Greg Doyle and Wendy Matthews—are itching to play their ukuleles for you.

The Folksoul Band

The Folksoul Band

The Folksoul Band, from the Monadnock region of southern New Hampshire, is dedicated to "keeping the folk in Soul and the soul in Folk." In 2004, the more mobile members became Doris "Granny D" Haddock's own personal marching band.

The Lee Boys

The Lee Boys

The Lee Boys' sacred steel style is rooted in gospel, but is infused with rhythm and blues, jazz, rock, funk, hip-hop, country, and world music in a powerfully jamming mix. Audiences instantly recognize that this is not "sitting and listening" music—dancing, shouting out, and having fun are essential parts of their show.

The Subdudes

The Subdudes

Led by singer/guitarist John Magnie, the Subdudes draw inspiration from the sounds of their native New Orleans, blending blues, gospel, funk, and R&B with harmony vocals; their sound is also notable for the band's substitution of a tambourine player for a drummer.

Tom Winslow

Tom Winslow

Born in North Carolina, Winslow has picked and sang folk, blues, and gospel in the Hudson Valley and 30 other states. He met Pete Seeger in the late sixties, joined the Sloop Singers, and penned "Hey Looka Yonder (it's the Clearwater)".

Tony Duncan

Tony Duncan

Tony Duncan is renowned for his contact, blind, and ball-on-head juggling. Using all original material, with absurd characters and humorous execution, his show is a full production of juggling combined with rope-walking, balancing, ping pong balls, and hula-hoops.

Toshi Reagon & BIGLovely

Toshi Reagon & BIGLovely

In some ways, singer Toshi Reagon is a throwback to classic R&B artists like Stevie Wonder or Prince, or old school rock like Led Zeppelin; she can take any style, update it, and make it her own with incredible ease.

Travis Jeffrey

Travis Jeffrey

Musician, artist, ship's captain, carpenter, activist, and author, Travis Jeffrey is a twenty-first century renaissance man. As volunteer, educator, and captain on the sloop Clearwater for 12 years, he knows the ropes. Jeffrey has played banjo throughout the Hudson Valley for decades, getting us all to sing together.

Uncle Rock

Uncle Rock

Uncle Rock is singer-songwriter, author, actor and teacher Robert Burke Warren. His "Rock Of All Ages" songs draw inspiration from Maurice Sendak, Woody Guthrie, and Shel Silverstein with a bit of classic rock thrown in.

Vern Coffey

Vern Coffey

Vern began his descent into circus freakdom as a child when he taught himself to juggle at the age of 12. Vern has performed with various west coast circuses and has taught circus arts and workshops with kids and adults.

Victorio "Roland" Mousaa

Victorio "Roland" Mousaa

Victorio "Roland" Mousaa, a Native American Indian from New Mexico, was raised in homes for children, has worked on farms in Colorado, hitchhiked to New York City, dodged the Vietnam draft, is still active in American Indian Movement, and has worked with Clearwater since 1969.

Walkabout Clearwater Chorus

Walkabout Clearwater Chorus

Founded by Pete Seeger in 1984, Walkabout hosts a monthly coffeehouse in White Plains and perform regularly throughout the tri-state area and beyond at festivals, coffeehouses, and special events.

GOSPEL SING

Come and sing along and harmonize with Marva P. Clark (Saturday) and Kim Harris (Sunday) as they perform spirituals at the Circle of Song.

BOAT MUSICIANS

In addition to our stage and field performers, the following musical groups will play during sails aboard the sloop Clearwater and Mystic Whaler throughout the festival weekend:

Uncle Wade/Tiki Daddy (roots string band), Lawson (traditional Irish), Breakneck Annie, Rich Hines & the Hillbilly Drifters (roots string band).
